SUBJECT: Withdrawal and Resubmission of Reason To Believe Recommendation – 2018
October Quarterly Report (Non-Election Sensitive) for the Administrative Fine Program

We are withdrawing the document circulated to the Commission on November 29, 2018 in order to remove two committees that filed a report which would exclude them from the administrative fine program for the 2018 October Quarterly Report. The report was received by the Commission after the RTB Recommendation was circulated, but before the vote due date.

Attached is a list of political committees and their treasurers who failed to file the 2018 October Quarterly Report (Non-Election Sensitive) in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). The October Quarterly Report was due on October 15, 2018.

The committees listed on the attached RTB Circulation Report either failed to file the report, filed the report no more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a late filed report), or filed the report more than thirty (30) days after the due date (considered a non-filed report). In accordance with the schedule of civil money penalties for

Dear Mr. Beals:

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), requires that your committee file an October Quarterly Report of Receipts and Disbursements every calendar year. This report, covering the period July 1, 2018 through September 30, 2018, shall be filed no later than October 15, 2018. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). Because records at the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") indicate that this report was not filed within thirty (30) days of the due date, the report is considered not filed for the purpose of calculating the civil money penalty. You should file this report if you have not already done so.

The Act permits the FEC to impose civil money penalties for violations of the reporting requirements of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a). 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4). On December 4, 2018, the FEC found that there is reason to believe ("RTB") that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) by failing to file timely this report on or before October 15, 2018. Based on the FEC's schedules of civil money penalties at 11 CFR § 111.43, the amount of your civil money penalty calculated at the RTB stage is $6,380. Please see the attached copy of the Commission's administrative fine regulations at 11 CFR §§ 111.30-111.55. Attachment 1. The Commission's website contains further information about how the administrative fine program works and how the fines are calculated. See <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. 11 CFR § 111.34. Your payment of $6,380 is due within forty (40) days of the finding, or by January 13, 2019, and is based on these factors:

Sensitivity of Report: Not Election Sensitive
Level of Activity: $119,282
Number of Days Late: Not Filed
Number of Previous Civil Money Penalties Assessed: 0

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Challenge the RTB Finding and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to challenge the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, you must submit a written response to the FEC's Office of Administrative Review, 1050 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20002. Your response must include the AF# (found at the top of page 1 under your committee's identification number) and be received within forty (40) days of the Commission's RTB finding, or January 13, 2019. 11 CFR § 111.35(a). Your written response must include the reason(s) why you are challenging the RTB finding and/or calculated civil money penalty, and must include the factual basis supporting the reason(s) and supporting documentation. The FEC strongly encourages that documents be submitted in the form of affidavits or declarations. 11 CFR § 111.36(c).

The FEC will only consider challenges that are based on at least one of three grounds: (1) a factual error in the RTB finding; (2) miscalculation of the calculated civil money penalty by the FEC; or (3) your demonstrated use of best efforts to file in a timely manner when prevented from doing so by reasonably unforeseen circumstances that were beyond your control. 11 CFR § 111.35(b). In order for a challenge to be considered on the basis of best efforts, you must have filed the required report no later than 24 hours after the end of these reasonably unforeseen circumstances. Id. Examples of circumstances that will be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) a failure of Commission computers or Commission-provided software despite your seeking technical assistance from Commission personnel and resources; (2) a widespread disruption of information transmissions over the Internet that is not caused by a failure of the Commission's or your computer systems or Internet service provider; and (3) severe weather or other disaster-related incident. 11 CFR § 111.35(c). Examples of circumstances that will not be considered reasonably unforeseen and beyond your control include, but are not limited to: (1) negligence; (2) delays caused by vendors or contractors; (3) treasurer and staff illness, inexperience or unavailability; (4) committee computer, software, or Internet service provider failures; (5) failure to know filing dates; and (6) failure to use filing software properly. 11 CFR § 111.35(d).

The "failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver" of your right to present such argument in a petition to the U.S. District Court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

If you intend to be represented by counsel, please advise the Office of Administrative Review. You should provide, in writing, the name, address and telephone number of your counsel and authorize counsel to receive notifications and communications relating to this challenge and imposition of the calculated civil money penalty.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Submit a Challenge

If you do not pay the calculated civil money penalty and do not submit a written response, the FEC will assume that the preceding factual allegations are true and make a final determination that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a civil money penalty.

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA"), as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996, 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. The FEC may take any and all appropriate action authorized and required by the DCA, as amended, including transfer to the U.S. Department of the Treasury for collection. 11 CFR § 111.51(a)(2):

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the calculated civil money penalty, follow the payment instructions on page 4 of this letter. Upon receipt of your payment, the FEC will send you a final determination letter.

NOTICE REGARDING PARTIAL PAYMENTS AND SETTLEMENT OFFERS

4. Partial Payments

If you make a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty, the amount of your partial payment will be credited towards the full civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination.

5. Settlement Offers

Any offer to settle or compromise a debt owed to the Commission, including making a payment in an amount less than the calculated civil money penalty assessed or any restrictive endorsements contained on your check or money order or proposed in correspondence transmitted with your check or money order, will be rejected. Acceptance and deposit or cashing of such a restricted payment does not constitute acceptance of the settlement offer. Payments containing restrictive endorsements will be deposited and treated as a partial payment towards the civil money penalty that the Commission assesses upon making a final determination. All unpaid civil money penalty amounts remaining will be subject to the debt collection procedures set forth in Section 2, above.

This matter was generated based on information ascertained by the FEC in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2). Unless you notify the FEC in writing that you wish the matter to be made public, it will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) until it is placed on the public record at the conclusion of this matter in accordance with 11 CFR § 111.42.

As noted earlier, you may obtain additional information on the FEC's administrative fine program, including the final regulations, on the FEC's website at <http://www.fec.gov/af/af.shtml>. If you have questions regarding the payment of the calculated civil money penalty, please contact Aimee Wechsler in the Reports Analysis Division at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 5) or (202) 694-1130. If you have questions regarding the submission of a challenge, please contact the Office of Administrative Review at our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202) 694-1660.

To Whom it May Concern,

I am in receipt of your letter dated December 6, 2018. It lists C00641035 and AF#: 3256. I am writing to challenge the RTB finding and civil money penalty.

The report has since been filed and was delayed because of problems involving commission-provided software and despite help requested. The report was filed immediately upon the end of these circumstances. The government shutdown has prevented us from receiving timely assistance in this matter from the FEC. On this basis we ask that the finding be dismissed.

The civil monetary penalty was also incorrectly calculated. The report was not election sensitive and the level of activity was different than that described. The level of activity was $16972.16, including all receipts and disbursements. The report was submitted on December 10, 2018, which is 56 days past October 15. By the schedule presented, this would result in an assessment for a filed report in the range of $10,000-$24,999.99 that would be calculated as follows:

$$[$142 + ($6 \times 56)] \times [1 + .25 \times $0.00] = $478.00.$$

We hope you will dismiss this penalty entirely because of the reasons described above and appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Allen Beals

REVIEWING OFFICER RECOMMENDATION
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW ("OAR")

AF# 3526 – Jeff Beals for Congress and Allen Beals, in his official capacity as Treasurer (C00641035)

Summary of Recommendation

Make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $667 civil money penalty.

Reason-to-Believe Background

The 2018 October Quarterly Report was due on October 15, 2018. The respondents filed the report on December 10, 2018, 56 days late. The report is not election sensitive and was not filed within 30 days of the due date; therefore, the report is considered not filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.43(d)(1) and (e)(1).

On December 4, 2018, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2018 October Quarterly Report and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $6,380 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. A letter was mailed to the respondents' address of record from the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") on December 6, 2018 to notify them of the Commission's RTB finding and civil money penalty.

Legal Requirements

The Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") states that the treasurer of a principal campaign committee shall file a report for the quarter ending September 30 no later than October 15. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a)(1)(i). Reports electronically filed must be received and validated at or before 11:59 pm Eastern Standard/Daylight Time on the filing deadline to be timely filed. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.19(c) and 104.5(e). The treasurer shall be personally responsible for the timely filing of reports. 11 C.F.R. § 104.14(d).

Summary of Respondents' Challenge

On January 28, 2019, the Commission received the written response ("challenge") from the Treasurer requesting the Commission dismiss the RTB finding. The Treasurer explains:

[The 2018 October Quarterly Report] was delayed because of problems involving commission-provided software and despite help requested. The report was filed immediately upon the end of these circumstances. The government shutdown...prevented [the Committee] from receiving timely assistance in this matter from the FEC.

The Treasurer also states that the civil money penalty was calculated incorrectly. He states that the report was not election sensitive, the level of activity of the report was $16,972.16, and the report was filed 56 days late. Therefore, the penalty should be $478.

Analysis

The Committee contends the 2018 October Quarterly Report "...was delayed because of problems involving commission-provided software and despite help requested." The respondents' challenge does not provide any explanation of the problems encountered or details related to their requests for Commission assistance. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.35(e). According to Commission records, the Committee filed the report using third-party software, not FECFile.¹ Furthermore, there are no Commission records to indicate the Committee requested any assistance from RAD or the Commission's Electronic Filing Office ("EFO") related to the 2018 October Quarterly Report prior to filing it on December 10, 2018.² Therefore, the Reviewing Officer recommends that the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a).

The Reviewing Officer confirms the civil money penalty should be recalculated and recommends that the Commission assess a $667 civil money penalty (reduced from the RTB civil money penalty of $6,380). The 2018 October Quarterly Report is not election sensitive for the Committee because the Candidate did not participate in the 2018 General Election. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.43(d)(1) The report was filed on December 10, 2018, 56 days late. Because the report was not filed within 30 days of the due date, it is considered not filed for the purpose of calculating the civil money penalty. 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.43(e)(1). At the time of the RTB finding, the Commission used an estimated level of activity ($119,282) to calculate the penalty because the 2018 October Quarterly Report had not yet been filed. 11 C.F.R. § 111.43(d)(2)(i). The now filed report discloses $5,462.86 in total receipts and $11,509.30 in total disbursements. Therefore, the actual level of activity of the 2018 October Quarterly Report is $16,972.16. Using the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43(a) for the level of activity bracket of $10,000 - $24,999.99, the civil money penalty is $667 x [1 + (.25 x 0 previous violations)] or $667.

¹ The Committee did transition to using FECFile when filing the 2018 Year End Report, filed January 29, 2019.

² The respondents mention they were unable to receive assistance from the Commission during the government shutdown. The Reviewing Officer notes that the Committee successfully filed the report on December 10, 2018, prior to the government shutdown of December 22, 2018 through January 25, 2019. Therefore, one can reasonably presume the respondents were seeking assistance related to the RTB finding and notification.

OAR Recommendations

1. Adopt the Reviewing Officer recommendation for AF# 3526 involving Jeff Beals for Congress and Allen Beals, in his official capacity as Treasurer, in making the final determination;
2. Make a final determination in AF# 3526 that Jeff Beals for Congress and Allen Beals, in his official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $667 civil money penalty (reduced from the RTB civil money penalty of $6,380); and
3. Send the appropriate letter.

Dear Mr. Beals:

On December 4, 2018, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer ("respondents"), violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2018 October Quarterly Report. The Commission also made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $6,380 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

After reviewing your written response and any supplemental information submitted by you and Commission staff, the Reviewing Officer has recommended that the Commission make a final determination and assess a reduced civil money penalty. A copy of the Reviewing Officer's recommendation is attached.

You may file with the Commission Secretary a written response to the recommendation within 10 days of the date of this letter. Your written response should be sent to the Commission Secretary, 1050 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20463 or via facsimile (202-208-3333). Please include the AF # in your response. Your response may not raise any arguments not raised in your original written response or not directly responsive to the Reviewing Officer's recommendation. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). The Commission will then make a final determination in this matter.

Please contact me at the toll free number 800-424-9530 (press 0, then press 1660) or 202-694-1158 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Rhiannon Magruder

Subject: Final Determination Recommendation in AF# 3526 – Jeff Beals for Congress and Allen Beals, in his official capacity as Treasurer (C00641035)

On December 4, 2018, the Commission found reason to believe ("RTB") that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to timely file the 2018 October Quarterly Report and made a preliminary determination that the civil money penalty was $6,380 based on the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43.

On January 28, 2019, the Commission received their written response ("challenge"). After reviewing the challenge, the Reviewing Officer Recommendation ("ROR") dated March 22, 2019 was forwarded to the Commission, a copy was forwarded to the respondents, and is hereby incorporated by reference. The Reviewing Officer recommended the Commission make a final determination that the respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) and assess a $667 civil money penalty, reduced from the RTB civil money penalty of $6,380.

Within 10 days of transmittal of the recommendation, the respondents may file a written response with the Commission Secretary which may not raise any arguments not raised in their challenge or not directly responsive to the ROR. 11 C.F.R. § 111.36(f). To date, a response has not been received.

Dear Mr. Beals:

On December 4, 2018, the Federal Election Commission ("the Commission") found reason to believe ("RTB") that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a) for failing to file the 2018 October Quarterly Report. By letter dated December 6, 2018, the Commission sent notification of the RTB finding that included a civil money penalty calculated at RTB of $6,380 in accordance with the schedule of penalties at 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. On January 28, 2019, the Office of Administrative Review received your written response challenging the RTB finding.

The Reviewing Officer reviewed the Commission's RTB finding with its supporting documentation and your written response. Based on this review, the Reviewing Officer recommended that the Commission reduce the RTB civil money penalty because it was calculated using an estimated level of activity, make a final determination that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a), and based on the actual level of activity disclosed on the 2018 October Quarterly Report filed December 10, 2018 ($16,972), assess a civil money penalty in the amount of $667 in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.43. The Reviewing Officer Recommendation was sent to you on March 22, 2019.

On May 1, 2019, the Commission adopted the Reviewing Officer's recommendation and made a final determination that Jeff Beals for Congress and you, in your official capacity as Treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a), and based on the level of activity disclosed on the 2018 October Quarterly Report ($16,972), assessed a civil money penalty in the amount of $667 (reduced from the RTB civil money penalty of $6,380). It is based on the same factors used to calculate the civil money penalty at RTB except that the actual rather than the estimated level of activity was used. A copy of the Final Determination Recommendation is attached.

At this juncture, the following courses of action are available to you:

1. If You Choose to Appeal the Final Determination and/or Civil Money Penalty

If you choose to appeal the final determination, you should submit a written petition, within 30 days of receipt of this letter, to the U.S. District Court for the district in which the committee or you reside, or transact business, requesting that the final determination be modified or set aside. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(C)(iii). Your failure to raise an argument in a timely fashion during the administrative process shall be deemed a waiver of the respondents' right to present such argument in a petition to the district court under 52 U.S.C. § 30109. 11 CFR § 111.38.

2. If You Choose Not to Pay the Civil Money Penalty and Not to Appeal

Unpaid civil money penalties assessed through the Administrative Fine regulations will be subject to the Debt Collection Act of 1982 ("DCA") as amended by the Debt Collection Improvement Act of 1996 ("DCIA"), 31 U.S.C. § 3701 et seq. If you do not pay this debt within 30 days (or file a written petition to a federal district court - see below), the Commission will transfer the debt to the U.S. Department of the Treasury ("Treasury") for collection. Within 5 days of the transfer to Treasury, Treasury will contact you to request payment. Treasury currently charges a fee of 30% of the civil money penalty amount for its collection services. If the age of the debt is greater than or equal to two years old, Treasury will charge a fee of 32% of the civil money penalty amount for its collection services. The fee will be added to the amount of the civil money penalty that you owe. Should Treasury's attempts fail, Treasury will refer the debt to a private collection agency ("PCA"). If the debt remains unpaid, Treasury may recommend that the Commission refer the matter to the Department of Justice for litigation.

Actions which may be taken to enforce recovery of a delinquent debt by Treasury may also include: (1) offset of any payments, which the debtor is due, including tax refunds and salary; (2) referral of the debt to agency counsel for litigation; (3) reporting of the debt to a credit bureau; (4) administrative wage garnishment; and (5) reporting of the debt, if discharged, to the IRS as potential taxable income. In addition, under the provisions of DCIA and other statutes applicable to the FEC, the debtor may be subject to the assessment of other statutory interest, penalties, and administrative costs.

In accordance with the DCIA, at your request, the agency will offer you the opportunity to inspect and copy records relating to the debt, the opportunity for a review of the debt, and the opportunity to enter into a written repayment agreement.

3. If You Choose to Pay the Civil Money Penalty

If you should decide to pay the civil money penalty, follow the payment instructions on page 4 of this letter. You should make payment within thirty (30) days of receipt of this letter.

NOTICE REGARDING PARTIAL PAYMENTS AND SETTLEMENT OFFERS

4. Partial Payments

If you make a payment in an amount less than the civil money penalty, the amount of your partial payment will be credited towards the full civil money penalty that the Commission assessed upon making a final determination.

5. Settlement Offers

Any offer to settle or compromise a debt owed to the Commission, including a payment in an amount less than the civil money penalty assessed or any restrictive endorsements contained on your check or money order or proposed in correspondence transmitted with your check or money order, will be rejected. Acceptance and deposit or cashing of such a restricted payment does not constitute acceptance of the settlement offer. Payments containing restrictive endorsements will be deposited and treated as a partial payment towards the civil money penalty that the Commission assessed upon making a final determination. All unpaid civil money penalty amounts remaining will be subject to the debt collection procedures set forth in Section 2, above.

The confidentiality provisions at 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. §§ 111.42(b) and 111.20(c), the file will be placed on the public record within 30 days from the date of this notification.

If you have any questions regarding the payment of the civil money penalty, please contact Rhiannon Magruder on our toll free number (800) 424-9530 (press 0, then ext. 1660) or (202) 694-1660.

On behalf of the Commission,

Ellen L. Weintraub
Chair
